LOCALS.

WANTED.—Two No. 1 house carpenters at once. J. A. Allen, Stanford, Ky.

READ in another column the advertisement of the Gordon School for Boys.

CARPENTERS! See our new diamond edge hand saws, guaranteed at George H. Farris'.

YOUR Graded School tax is due. Please call and settle at once. W. O. Walker, treasurer.

CANNEL coal, Glen Mary and Jellico coal. See me before you buy. W. S. Wigham, Moreland.

YOUR city taxes are now due. My office is with Garland Singleton. Call in and settle. R. G. Jones, city marshal.

R. H. HAMM bought the interest of the late J. Harvey Dunn in their store at Brodhead and is running the business alone.

MR. L. G. GOOCH, of Waynesburg, left at the Lincoln County National Bank an apple which weighs 21 ounces. It is of the 20 Ounce Pippin variety.

JUDGE W. C. BELL, of Harrodsburg, was here yesterday for a short while and sat in the Moore case, for which he called a special term of the Lincoln circuit court.

POLICE COURT.—In the police court yesterday, Judge Tribble fined George Wallace $5 and costs for disorderly conduct, and George Owens, colored, for breach of the peace, $5 and costs.

MR. W. A. MOBERLY, secretary of the Rand Powder Co., has our thanks for an invitation to the opening of the company's works at Knoxville, Aug. 22. Mr. Moberly is an old Lincoln county boy who is growing wealthy in his adopted Tennessee home.

THE defense in the case of James Carter, Dick Chandler, Elmore Siler and Misses Ethel Delaney and Lena Staton, charged with the murder of Cecil Crutchfield, offered no testimony when the court convened Tuesday morning but speeches were made on motion for dismissing the accused. Judge Bailey declined to discharge them, however, and ordered Jailer Herrin to take them in charge. Later in the day Misses Delaney and Staton and Chandler and Siler gave bond in $150 each and are now enjoying their freedom. Carter is still in jail.

ROYSTON.—Miss Fannie Royston, aged about 21, died at the home of her father, Mr. William Royston, in Garrard, and was buried at Lancaster at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. She had been ill of typhoid fever for several weeks. Her mother, who died a number of years ago, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. McKinney, of this place, who have also gone to their final home. Miss Royston was a splendid young woman and was fully prepared to meet her Maker. Friends here of the father and sisters deeply sympathize with them in their great loss.

IMPROVED Blickensderfer Typewriter for sale. J. W. Ireland, Stanford.

THANKS.—Mr. Walter Hiatt, who is a fine water melon raiser, left at this office the other day a fine sample which was enjoyed by the whole force.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The K. C. train that formerly left Richmond at 8:20 A. M., now leaves there at 9:15 A. M. and arrives at Rowland at 12:25 P. M.

THE L. & N. will run an excursion to Louisville Sunday morning, Aug. 20, at $1.75 for the round-trip. Train will leave Stanford at 6 A. M. and two coaches will be reserved for white people.

SWEENEY.—Mr. Reason Sweeney, aged 73, died in the Kingsville section Tuesday of stomach trouble. He was a splendid old gentleman and had been sick some time. He was buried Wednesday.

FRANKFORT housekeepers, who are having trouble keeping cooks, will send a delegation to the Swiss Colony in Laurel county to induce Swiss families to locate in the capital city, that their daughters may be given situations as domestics.

THERE will be a box supper at the old Baptist church, under Masonic Hall, Preachersville, Saturday night, next, given by Derrick Warner Lodge, 561, F. & A. M. Everybody invited. J. W. Cummins, J. M. Cress, A. J. Thompson, J. S. Pettus, J. B. Hutchins, Committee.

PROMPT PAYMENTS.—Mr. A. C. Sine showed us Wednesday drafts for $2,050, amount of insurance carried by Mr. J. C. Cormey, who died less than three weeks ago. Mr. Sine also tells us that he drew over $200 in sick benefits and had only paid into the Order about $100 since he became a member of it.

PUMPING OIL.—Sheriff M. S. Baughman is pumping the oil into a 40-barrel tank that was struck on his farm when the oil fever was on in Stanford. It is a good grade of oil and he can easily dispose of it at $5 per barrel to farmers, who can use it to a splendid advantage with stock, he tells us.

RESIGNED.—Mr. John Bright, Sr., who has been county statistical correspondent for 30 years, resigned some weeks ago, writing Commissioner of Agriculture Vreeland as follows: "Having long since passed the mile post of the journey of life, at which Dr. Osler wants all men chloroformed, I am prompted to hand you my resignation as statistical correspondent for Lincoln county, after 30 years of service." Mr. Vreeland accepted his resignation with much regret and appointed Dr. Ed Alcorn, of Hustonville, in his stead. A good selection.

BRODHEAD FAIR.—Good crowds are attending the Brodhead fair, splendid order is preserved and everybody is having a good time. The show of stock, while good, is hardly up to the average. The balloon ascension each day by Miss LaVerne, of Chicago, is a decided feature and the women's and agricultural departments are the best in the history of the association. Mr. W. T. Tucker, of this county, took a half dozen blue ties on his splendid Hereford cattle yesterday morning. He got everything he showed for. His herd is a magnificent one. The Crab Orchard fair is furnishing good music and the hotels and boarding houses are taking excellent care of the visitors. This is the last day of the fair and the indications are that it will be the biggest of the three.

MATRIMONIAL.

The engagement of Mr. Denny Goode, an old Pulaski county boy, but now of Louisville, to Miss Josephine Tarleton, of Louisville, is announced. The marriage will take place in October.

Mrs. Martha B. Adams extends a general invitation to the friends of the family to the marriage of her daughter, Nelle, to Mr. Rodman Keenon, which will occur at the Presbyterian church, Hustonville, on next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated here at 6 o'clock this evening when Miss Mary Payne Harris, formerly of Abingdon, Va., but for the past several years a teacher in the Bristol schools, was married to Mr. Horace M. Lyman, of Selma, Ala. The nuptials were solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Rev. W. H. T. Squires officiating. The couple will reside at Selma, where the groom is in the postal service—Bristol, Va., Times-Dispatch. Miss Harris is well remembered here as a teacher in the college some years ago and made many friends while here, who wish her unbounded happiness.

MR. P. Faulkner Kennedy and Mrs. Anna Austin were married at Rev. P. J. Ross' residence by that gentleman Tuesday evening and left Wednesday morning for Mobile, Ala., the home of the bride. Invitations had been issued for the marriage to take place at the Baptist church, Preachersville, at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, but an urgent telegram from the bride's attorney in the South, hurried the matter a day. Mr. Kennedy is the youngest son of Mr. Grove C. Kennedy and is a promising young attorney, being the junior member of the law firm of Bobbitt & Kennedy, of Crab Orchard. He is a bright young man and an exceedingly affable one. The bride is a very handsome woman of Mobile, and was here at the Springs when she met Mr. Kennedy. It was a case of love at first sight for the two have known each other less than a month. She is said to be very wealthy.

Fiendish Suffering

is often caused by sores, ulcers and cancers, that eat away your skin. Wm. Bedell, of Flat Rock, Mich., says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, for Ulcers, Sores and Cancers. It is the best healing dressing I ever found." Soothes and heals cuts, burns and scalds. 25c at G. L. Penny's drug store, Stanford; Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard; guaranteed.
